With these legitimatizing attitudes from TV, it's very easy to fall into the logical trap that porn is no big deal. After all, everyone watches it, right?

Download this free e-book, Your Brain on Porn, to learn the 5 proven ways pornography warps your brain, including how porn:

- decreases sexual satisfaction
- lowers one's view of women
- desensitizes the viewer to cruelty

You'll also learn how the gospel, obedience to God's Word, and quality fellowship renews your mind and moves you toward freedom.

- Porn is big business

Just six years ago, global porn revenues were estimated at $20 billion, with $10 billion coming from US consumers.

However, by 2011 both global and U.S. porn revenues had been reduced by 50%, due in large part to the amount of free pornography available online. It is estimated that 80-90% of Internet porn users only access free online material.

As far as online pornography is concerned, from 2001 to 2007, the Internet porn industry went from a $1-billion-a-year industry to $3-billion-a-year in the US alone.

- Porn is a dangerous business

... 66% of porn performers have herpes, and 7% of porn performers have HIV.

Ex-porn star Tanya Burleson says men and women in pornography do drugs because “they can’t deal with the way they’re being treated” in the industry...

...from the 50 top selling adult films, 88% of scenes contained acts of physical aggression

- After an analysis of more than one million hits to Google's mobile search sites, more than 1 in 5 searches are for pornography on mobile devices.

- 20% of 16-year-olds and 30% of 17-year-olds have received a “sext” (a sexually explicit text message).
- More than 7 out of 10 teens hide their online behavior from their parents in some way.
- More than half of boys and nearly a third of girls see their first pornographic images before they turn 13

Porn is destroying families

- The American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers reports that 56% of divorce cases involve one party having “an obsessive interest in pornographic websites.”
- According to numerous studies, prolonged exposure to pornography leads to:
 - a diminished trust between intimate couples
 - the belief that promiscuity is the natural state
 - cynicism about love or the need for affection between sexual partners
 - the belief that marriage is sexually confining
 - a lack of attraction to family and child-raising

Porn and Your Marriage

"I have also seen in my clinical experience that pornography damages the sexual performance of the viewers...

Having spent so much time in unnatural sexual experiences with paper, celluloid and cyberspace, they seem to find it difficult to have sex with a real human being. Pornography is raising their expectation... at the same time it is reducing their ability to experience sex."

THE MH INTERVIEW

After five decades in Hollywood, the cinematic icon talks fur bikinis, Marilyn Monroe, and why porn is ruining men.

Raquel Welch

Raquel Welch: It's just dehumanizing. And I have to honestly say, I think this era of porn is at least partially responsible for it. Where is the anticipation and the personalization? It's all pre-fab now. You have these images coming at you unannounced and unsolicited. It just gets to be so plastic and phony to me. Maybe men respond to that. But is it really better than an experience with a real life girl that he cares about? It's an exploitation of the poor male's libidos. Poor babies, they can't control themselves.

MH: I cannot dispute any of what you're saying.

Raquel Welch: I just imagine them sitting in front of their computers, completely annihilated. They haven't done anything, they don't have a job, they barely have ambition anymore. And it makes for laziness and a not very good sex partner. Do they know how to negotiate something that isn't pre-fab and injected directly into their brain?
